Module Name	Teaching Name & Message
Rooted: Knowing and Believing Who You Are	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Identity When you know Whose you are, you begin to truly believe who you are. 2) Love v. Infatuation Real love is often tainted by “the behaviors” we consider to be normal in culture – but we can only truly know what love is when we look to God, who is our source of love. 3) God, Guys, and Girls We must get our relationship with God right before we can get relationships with each other right, including romantic ones!
Let’s Get Real	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Social Media: It’s Not What You Think The dangers of social media are real, and until we filter them through a Biblical worldview, the internet can become a place of darkness that enslaves us. 2) Pornography: The Culprit of Diminishing Real Relationships At the root of the pornography problem lies a tragic misunderstanding of who we were created to be and what relationships are supposed to be about. 3) Uninvited: Loneliness and Rejection Rejection can certainly grow and shape us, but it was never meant to define us. This message is an invitation of hope from the God of the Universe – specifically for those students struggling with suicidal thoughts, depression, and anxiety.
Purity: Rethinking, Reorienting, or Restarting	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) The Pursuit: Who to Date and How to Date The term “dating” really isn’t used in the Bible, so how do we know what dating with honor and purity looks like? 2) A Blank Slate: How the Gospel Changes Your Story God cares about the condition of our heart, not the technicalities of our virginity. He calls us to adopt a greater vision for our relationships and sexual understanding because of who we are in Him. 3) Marriage: Why It Matters Marriage has a purpose that is far beyond our own happiness.
An Overflowing Cup	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) The Deeper Need Is following Jesus worth our sacrifice? 2) Why Does God Give Us Rules? The truths of the Gospel support and sustain the commands of the Gospel, which are for our good. 3) Love Does What do you want your life and your relationships to be known for?
